Real talk happens in small moments: passing the peas, waiting at a red light, rinsing shampoo, turning off the lamp. These cards give those moments a good question.

How to use the cards

- 1 Match the card to the moment.
Dinner cards at the table, car cards on the road, bath cards at the tub, bedtime cards at lights-out.
- 2 One card is plenty.
A single good question can fill a whole meal. Put the rest back for tomorrow.
- 3 Everyone answers.
Grown-ups too. Kids open up when they hear your answer first.
- 4 Use the grown-up tip.
Each card has one small idea for keeping the talk going.
- 5 Keep it light.
Anyone can say “pass.” It’s a conversation, not a quiz.

Four moments

-  Dinner CARDS 01–13
Keep them in a jar on the table.
-  Car CARDS 14–26
Keep them in the glove box or a door pocket.
-  Bath CARDS 27–39
Keep them by the sink in a zip bag.
-  Bedtime CARDS 40–52
Keep them on the nightstand or by the books.

Ages 5–7. Read the card aloud, give an example answer, and welcome short answers. Drawing an answer counts too.

Ages 8–12. Let them read the card and choose who answers first. Ask the question back later in the week.

6 talk-along habits

-  Go first
Answer the card yourself sometimes. Kids copy what they see.
-  Ask “what else?”
One gentle follow-up keeps a short answer going.
-  Side by side
Car rides and dish duty feel easier than face-to-face talks.
-  Wait longer
Count to five in your head. Big thoughts take a moment.
-  Listen, don't fix
Save advice for later. “Tell me more” goes a long way.
-  Passing is okay
Anyone can say “pass” and pull another card.

Some questions (the hard parts, the worries) can bring up big feelings. Listening is enough. If something your child shares worries you, reach out to your child’s doctor or another trusted professional.

Print, cut and keep

- ✓ Print at “Actual size” (100%). Cards are standard poker size, 2.5 × 3.5 in (63.5 × 88.9 mm).
- ✓ Use cardstock if you can. Heavy paper or cardstock (65–110 lb / 176–300 gsm) feels like a real deck.
- ✓ Edges cut off? Choose “Fit” instead. The cards print a little smaller and still work.
- ✓ Backs are optional. Print the backs page on the reverse of a card sheet, flipping on the long edge. Test one sheet first.
- ✓ Cut on the lines. A paper trimmer is fastest. Round the corners with a corner punch if you like.
- ✓ Make them last. Laminate for sticky fingers. Keep them in a recipe box, a zip bag or on a ring.

9 cards per page · 6 pages · 54 cards

✓ Safety basics

- In the car, a passenger reads the card. The driver keeps eyes on the road.
- Bath time: stay with your child. Keep the cards dry in a zip bag by the sink.
- Any question can be skipped. Nobody has to answer something that feels too big.
- If a big worry comes up, listen first. Solutions can wait for a calm moment.
- Laminated cards and card rings stay with grown-ups around babies and toddlers.
