How we make our Add-One Chain

ASK

I asked a question.

COMMENT

I said something back.

ADD ONE

I added one more idea.

LISTEN

I listened to a friend.

Our Add-One Chain rules

One voice at a time.

Whoever holds the star takes a turn.

“Pass” is OK.

You can listen and try next time.

Every way of talking counts.

Words, signs, pointing, pictures and devices.

We make one chain together.

Every link helps our class.

Ask a friend a question

What did you play today?

What is your favorite animal? Why?

If you could fly, where would you go?

COMMENT

Say something back

Me too! I like...

Wow! I like that because...

That is so funny!

Add one more idea

And then...

Add one word: a big, big...

Add a color.

LISTEN

Listen to a friend

Wait for the Talking Star.

Show you are listening, your way.

Say back one thing you heard.

Whose turn?

Pass the Talking Star.
Whoever holds it takes a turn.
Everyone else listens.

Chain tangle!

One voice at a time.
Who has the star?

Let's count our chain!

Point and count together. How many links did we add today?

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20

Great talking today!

We asked, we commented, we added one,
and we listened to our friends.
